Tara’s Corner

“April is for Aphrodite”

April is named after the Greek Goddess Aphrodite; the goddess of love, beauty, pleasure, and procreation. All good things. As the weather starts to thaw, let’s plant some seeds of love and see what beautiful things we can take pleasure in together.

Just yesterday, a friend gave me a small pot and asked me to write on it all my hopes for spring. I wrote, “faith, hope, and love.” Then he had me choose a seed to plant and gave me dirt to plant it in.

I chose Morning Glory, which is a blue flower on a climbing vine. If it actually grows, the tiny pot it’s planted in won’t hold it long. However, it has a certain sentimental appeal to me because my family used to call me, “Tara Tory Morning Glory.”

Let’s make some plans for things we can do together, and watch our friendships grow into a beautiful, riotous garden.

Org Board Coming

There is a saying, “If you can predict, you can participate.” We want to make it easier and clearer how to participate at CVUU.

Sharla, our Organizational Coordinator, and I are in the process of making an organization board or “org board.” This will be a visual representation of our various CVUU teams, staff and groups. It will take the form of sheets listing each staff or board member, as well as all of our teams and groups.

For teams and groups, we will list the leader, mission/purpose and members. We will post these sheets in a public place (e.g., the kitchen). This will make it easier to see our community’s overall organization at a glance.

It will also make it easier to show our visitors and those new to our congregation our staff, teams, groups and where they might like to participate. Again, if you can predict, you can participate. Send Sharla or me any suggestions on how to make our org board more user-friendly!

The Jay and Leslie Black Fellowship House
“Why Our World Needs to Reclaim and Listen to Women’s Spiritual Leadership: The Importance of Women’s Spiritual Voices and Lived Experiences” - Naomi Tutu

On March 24, 2016, Tara Hawkins, Julianne Larsen, and several other CVUU members had the opportunity to hear Ms. Naomi Tutu speak about the importance of women’s voices and spirituality in our churches up on USU campus. Ms. Tutu is the 3rd child of the Reverend Desmond Tutu. She also has many accolades and honors.

Ms. Tutu spoke of her own trouble growing up in the Anglican Church where their depictions of God were of a white male. She wondered how her being a black South African woman could be understood by a white male God. She is working on her Master of Divinity degree and got to thinking how when we place God in a box, where he/she does not represent all of humanity, it sets us up for prejudice and privileged people who are "made in the image of God".

She spoke of the importance of hearing women behind the pulpit as well as see them cleaning the churches or caring for the sick. Why can we hold all these duties in the churches but not preach? She didn't grow up seeing women in leadership positions but now sees the potential for all churches to grow by letting all people who are called be leaders and preachers.

When she was asked what we can do in our own churches, she said that we should rock the boat. Tara asked the last question of the night, which was, "What do we do if white men just don’t want to give up their privilege?” Ms. Tutu chuckled and then said that we need privileged traitors in our churches to turn over their privilege so others would do the same.

We talked with her after and she was very gracious and kind.

New CVUU HIKERS group

CVUUer Susanne Janecke and Marilyn Hammond are planning to lead a group walk or hike for CVUU on the fourth Sunday of every month during the walking season. Please join us if you can. We will meet at the Forest Service parking lot at 1:30pm and would be out for a few hours.

Car pools and biking are encouraged. Please bring water, sturdy shoes, a hat, sunscreen, and a sack lunch if you don’t have time to eat your lunch beforehand.

We plan to select trails that are suitable for a range of ability levels. These might include the Bonneville Shoreline Trail, River Trail, Green Canyon, Wood Camp, Mill Hollow, or Spawn Creek. Feel free to suggest your favorite walk or hike. The first hike will be on April 24th. For more information, contact: Susanne Janecke.
Thank YOU!

Thank You to everyone that purchased oranges for the Youth fundraiser. We raised over $1300! A very special thank you to Susanne and Jim Evans for their recent donation of $2000 to the Youth Group from the Karen Evans Fund.

This amazing donation along with the other fundraisers, makes it possible for our entire youth to go to Best Friends Animal Sanctuary in June for two days of service and for our high school group to get to New Orleans this summer for the UU Activate youth leadership summit to gain hands-on experience in Racial Justice and Beloved Community.

I couldn’t be more grateful and overjoyed.

Fundraising via Natural Grocers Gift Cards

Do you do any of your shopping at Natural Grocers?

If so, consider buying gift cards through CVUU to use for your shopping there. It’s the same cost to you, but if you buy gift cards from CVUU, 5% of the amount you spend is donated to CVUU! When many of us participate, it adds up to an important contribution to our community.

You don’t have to be a member of CVUU to participate. Even if you don’t attend CVUU regularly, but just value the presence of this resource in our Logan community, consider this as a way to show your support for the values and programs we encourage, like comprehensive sexuality education for teens, safe space for LGBT and homeless youth in our community, and a community where personal spiritual journeys are supported and respected.

Gift cards come in $25, $50, and $100 amounts. Some people buy a regular amount each month; others just purchase a card when needed. Contact Lorien at 435-770-2413 if you are interested.

And hey, you get gift cards with cute little owls on them.
